

Architectural Studies at Connecticut College Suggested Tracks

The Architectural Studies major is an interdisciplinary program that requires each student to complete a required 5-course core and to select 7 additional courses from a list of approved electives. Below are several suggestions for selecting a seminar (which is part of the required core) and electives. These are suggestions only and you are free to develop your own path through the Architectural Studies curriculum.

Architectural Design

Seminar recommendation:

- ♦seminar in Architectural History

Electives:

- ♦at least two from ART 106, 207, 208, 225, 226, and 234
- ♦ARC 241
- ♦ARC 342
- ♦at least two architectural history courses at the 200 or 300 level
- ♦PSY 320
- ♦MAT 112
- ♦PHY 107

Historic Preservation

Seminar recommendation:

- ♦GOV 493A: Culture, Politics and the Environment

Electives:

- ♦AHI 217
- ♦AHI 326
- ♦ART 200
- ♦ARC 241
- ♦ANT 102
- ♦ANT 370, 383, 385, or 406
- ♦an additional seminar in Architectural History

Landscape Architecture

Seminar recommendation:

- ♦GOV 493A: Culture, Politics and the Environment

Electives:

- ♦ART 106
- ♦ART 226
- ♦AHI 277
- ♦ARC 261
- ♦ES 110
- ♦PHI/ES 230
- ♦BOT 223

Architectural History

Seminar recommendation:

- ♦seminar in Architectural History

Electives:

- ♦ART 200
- ♦ANT 370, 383, or 385
- ♦PHI 251/AHI 230 or ENG 309
- ♦at least three Architectural History courses at the 200 or 300 level
- ♦an additional seminar in Architectural History

Urban Planning

Seminar recommendation:

- ♦GOV 493A: Culture, Politics and the Environment

Electives:

- ♦ARC 241
- ♦ARC 342
- ♦AHI 493/494Q
- ♦ECO 247
- ♦SOC 264
- ♦SOC 364
- ♦FRN 424 or ANT 370