

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

FALL 2011 OPEN HOUSE

8:30 – 9:15 a.m.

Registration and Reception

Palmer Auditorium, lower level (#40 on campus map)

9:15 – 10 a.m.

Welcome

Martha C. Merrill '84, Dean of Admission and Financial Aid

Leo I. Higdon, Jr., President

Student Speakers

ALL DAY

Attend a Class

(course schedule enclosed)

Information Booths

Lost? Have a question? Just want to chat with current students? Stop by the information booths at Horizon Admission Building (#1) or in the lobby of the College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9).

10:15 – 11:05 a.m.

Expanding your World View

What does it mean to internationalize your education? Study abroad is part of it, sure, but there's more. Listen to what our students have to say about it and learn more about opportunities to study, engage in research and intern overseas.

Evans Hall, Cummings Arts Center (#41)

Arboretum Tour

The 750-acre Connecticut College Arboretum is managed as a living laboratory for environmental research and teaching. It also serves as a recreational resource for the campus community and the general public. Join a member of the Arboretum staff on a walk through the 20-acre native tree and shrub collection.

Tour departs from steps of Harkness Chapel (#3)

Athletic Center Tour

Take a comprehensive tour of the College's athletic facilities, including our new fitness center overlooking the Thames River.

Tour departs from Luce Field House Main Lobby (#54)

11:15 a.m. – 1:05 p.m.

Lunch

Lunch is served in two seatings. Space has been reserved for you and your family at the luncheon designated on your ticket.

Class of 1962 Room, College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9)

11:15 a.m. – 12:05 p.m. Lunch A

12:15 – 1:05 p.m. Lunch B

11:15 a.m. – 12:05 p.m.

Finding Your Way

So you haven't decided on a major and you aren't sure what you want to do after you graduate college. Or there are two or more majors that really excite you, and you don't want to have to choose just one. Does that mean you're hopeless? A dean and several students weigh in, and have they got some good news for you!

Class of 1941 Room, College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9, 2nd floor)

Campus Tour

Tour departs from front lobby, College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9, 2nd floor)

12:15 – 1:05 p.m.

Finding Your Way

(as above, same location)

Campus Tour

Tour departs from front lobby, College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9, 2nd floor)

1:15 – 2:05 p.m.

Beyond the Classroom

Getting involved in campus life helps ensure that your days will be balanced and your educational experience well rounded. Learn about clubs, organizations, service opportunities, leadership development, entertainment, College traditions and more.

Cro's Nest, College Center at Crozier-Williams (#9, 2nd floor)

Apprenticeship of the Mind

The student-faculty ratio of 9:1 doesn't begin to tell the story of student-faculty engagement at Connecticut College. Teaching and research is interdisciplinary and hands-on, and you'll definitely get to know your professors beyond the classroom and the lab. Hear all about it from several professors and students.

Cummings Arts Center, Evans Hall (#41)

Campus Tour

Tour departs from Horizon Admission Building (#1)

2:15 – 3:05 p.m.

Admission and Financial Aid 101

Martha C. Merrill '84, Dean of Admission and Financial Aid, and a member of the financial aid staff explain the ins and outs of the admission process and financial aid.

Evans Hall, Cummings Arts Center (#41)

The Arts: A Tour

You don't have to major in the arts to take classes or to enjoy them. Tour the facilities of the studio art, music, dance and theater departments and learn about the rich and storied history of the arts at Connecticut College.

Cummings Arts Center (#41)

Campus Tour

Tour departs from Horizon Admission Building (#1)

3:15 – 4 p.m.

Farewell

Have you ever had a Camel cookie? They're a delicious tradition at Connecticut College. Join Admission staff and students for one of our favorite refreshments. Last-minute questions are encouraged!

Horizon Admission Building (#1)