PART 2

I understand that by signing, I am ACCEPTING placement in any locations that I have checked off above. Further, I understand that Thematic & Lifestyle Housing has been designated as such to support those students who have indicated that they prefer this particular type of living environment. For this reason, I understand that any resident involved in behaviors disruptive to the theme or lifestyle of the community may be re-assigned to a space that is non-designated. This decision will be made at the discretion of the Office of Residential Life & Housing.

PART 3

On a separate piece of paper please type your answers to the following questions as they pertain to the specific type of housing you are applying for. Please limit your responses to one page or less per question. NOTE: there are no essays required for Single Sex or Year Round Housing for Individuals.

IMPORTANT: If you are applying for more than one type of thematic or lifestyle housing, you must submit a separate set of responses for each type of housing (example: a person applying for Abbey House and Knowlton House would hand in 2 separate sets of questions, and would indicate which is their first and which is their second choice for housing).

1. Please describe, specifically, why you are applying to live in this type of housing.
2. What do you perceive as the advantages and disadvantages of living in this type of housing?
How might you deal with the disadvantages?
3. What would you contribute to the residential community?
4. What do you hope to gain from this type of community?
5. Knowlton House only: What section are you applying for and specifically what is your past experience with that language? (Please include all past, current or future course titles and numbers.) Some CC language coursework is required; preference may be given to those enrolled in CC language courses for the 2008-2009 year. See page 16 of the Housing Lottery booklet for an additional description of Knowlton House's theme.

Thank you!
