Important information

- Student's financial aid will remain in an estimated status until 2009 federal taxes and all supporting documents have been submitted. This means corporate/business taxes – including K1's, final tax returns (not draft tax returns) and any additional information requested by the financial aid office but not received.
- Our staff will require your 2009 federal tax returns with supporting documents when completed but no later than May 1, 2010 for verification purposes.
