

Spring Visit Day

Thursday, April 17, 2008

9:15-9:45 a.m.

REGISTRATION AND RECEPTION

Location: Cummings Arts Center Foyer

9:45-10:15 a.m.

WELCOME

Location: John C. Evans Hall, Cummings Arts Center

Remarks:

Martha C. Merrill '84, Dean of Admission & Financial Aid

Student Address:

Sarah F. Noble '08

All Day

ATTEND A CLASS

See course schedule for times and locations.

10:30-11:20 a.m.

CAMPUS TOUR

Location: Leaves from Cummings Arts Center

For students

10:30-10:50 a.m. &
11:00-11:20 a.m.

The Power of Story: An Essay Writing Workshop

The college essay is one of the most daunting pieces of the application, but also one of the most important. Learn some essay writing tips from a member of the Admission Committee.

The Evaluative Interview: It's Just a Conversation

Connecticut College senior student interviewers present the "insider's view" on what you can do to make your best impression as an interviewee.

Select a location: Ernst Common Room or Hood Dining Room, Blaustein Humanities Center.

For parents/guardians

10:30-11:20 a.m. Making The Leap

A discussion with college administrators who will talk on a broad range of topics related to campus life.

Location: 1941 Room, Crozier-Williams Student Center

11:30 a.m.-12:20 p.m. GENERAL INFORMATION SESSION

Join a member of the admission staff for an overview of Connecticut College's approach to the liberal arts. Learn about the College's distinctive opportunities, including international study, student-faculty research, funded internships, interdisciplinary studies, and community action.

Location: Oliva Hall, Cummings Arts Center

12:30-1:20 p.m. LUNCH

Location: Class of 1962 Room, Crozier-Williams Student Center

12:30-1:20 p.m. CAMPUS TOUR

Location: Leaves from Oliva Hall, Cummings Arts Center

1:30-2:20 p.m. The Nuts & Bolts of Financial Aid

A member of the financial aid staff gives an introduction to the financial aid process.

Location: Ernst Common Room, Blaustein Humanities Center

2:30-3:20 p.m. CAMPUS TOUR

Location: Leaves from Horizon Admission Building