Attend a Class
While we’ve made some room for you in the schedule to visit a class during the 1:15-2:30 p.m. time slot, you’re encouraged to check out the full course schedule and sit in on any being offered throughout the day that interest you.

Explore the Library
Visit the circulation desk for a Shain 101 guide and explore the newly renovated and reopened library to find your own personal future study space!
Charles E. Shain Library (F2)

#ConnSaidYes
Tweet and Instagram your photos throughout the day! Have a question? Just tweet and we’ll get right back to you!

9:15 – 10:05 a.m.
Global Engagement at Home and Abroad
Find out how Connecticut College weaves international experiences and perspectives through academics and beyond. You’ll learn about internationalized coursework, innovative language programs, study abroad, “TRIP” courses (which include 1-2 weeks of international travel), and international internships.
Cummings Arts Center, Evans Hall (D3)

Music Forum
Music students and their professor will share how music permeates academic and extracurricular life at Connecticut College. You’ll learn about the many musical opportunities in and out of the classroom.
Cummings Arts Center, Oliva Hall (lower level) (D3)

Library Tour
Take a guided tour of the recently reopened Charles E. Shain Library, including its refurbished classrooms and collaborative study areas, new high-tech tools for learning, and a beautiful new café that also serves as a 24-hour study space.
