The Department of Classics invites you to a lecture on “Death, Grief, and Memory in the Roman World”

Professor James Uden
Boston University
Monday, March 31
4.30pm, Charles Chu Room

What were the major causes of death among the ancient Romans? How did they react to death and how did they treat their dead? Learn how the Romans’ conceptions of death shaped their thinking.