   • Tuesday, February 2, 2016
   • Tuesday April 15, 2016

III. Discussion on mission of CCCC regarding how to best support students while best preparing them for life after college. Discussion to be continued.

IV. Accomplishments/Progress since last meeting:
   1. Janet contacted Dean/Assistant Dean of Faculty to assist with CCCC faculty membership and identified 2 new faculty members (Prof. Hybel and Prof. Tarris)
   2. Janet (Bryana) reached out and identified several additional student members.
   3. December 4th FYS during Common Hour had a health and wellness focus, including comfort dogs, massages, jars, bubble wrap, coloring, “stressed-out Sam”, yoga, meditation, etc. with good participation and involvement.
   4. Connected about next year’s Fresh Check Day and scheduling with Camelympics-Not as practical as we thought. Date set for FCD Friday, October 7, 2016 11am-2pm
   5. Task Force: Scott, Hannah, Phoebe met regarding additional opportunities for pets on campus but came up with no plan to date.
   6. Completed Fall SSN successfully; several suggestions discussed for improvements.

V. Gatekeeper training plans for Spring 2016
   • Community of Care: Be the 1st- Faculty/Staff group (February 10, 2016)-Deb MacDonnell will advertise for this
   • Student Support Network (SSN) to begin in February for 6 weeks. Doctoral Practicum students Allison Silvers and Jessica Naecker will coordinate spring classes. Need referral of students who might be good candidates for Spring semester. Reviewing feedback for improvements.

VI. Active Minds Report (by Grace Bradley)-Grace reported on Harvest Fest and the creation of the second “I Have a Therapist” youtube video, soon to be released. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x0IMm8KSjp4

VII. Action Plans:
   1. Janet will contact Dean of Faculty/College to get assistance for spring with gatekeeper referrals, especially Freshman Advisors
   2. CCCC members will reach out to students to further diversifyCCCCC membership
   3. Members of CCCC should, where possible, link websites to SCS
   4. Continue with discussion of mission of CCCC
5. Discuss how to get more campus involvement for spring Lax-4-Life
