ABOUT OUR STUDENTS
Connecticut College’s full-time undergraduates come from 39 states, the District of Columbia and 41 countries. The College is recognized as a top producer of Fulbright students by the U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Connecticut College students are also regularly awarded Marshall Scholarships, Watson Fellowships and many other prestigious national awards of merit.

- 1,737 Total enrollment
- 76% Ranked in the top 20% of their high school class
- 23% Domestic students of color
- 95% Employed or in graduate school 1 year after graduation

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
The College’s mission is to educate students to put the liberal arts into action as citizens of a global society. Since 2014, Conn’s four-year integrative curriculum, Connections, teaches complex thinking, real-world problem-solving and, ultimately, ensures successful lives and careers for students beyond college.

- 92 percent of the Class of 2024 cited Connections as one of the main reasons they chose to enroll at Conn.
- 3 years in a row that Connecticut College has been named a Most Innovative School by U.S. News and World Report

ACADEMIC STATISTICS
- 9:1 Student-Faculty ratio
- 17 Students on average per class
- 42 Majors
- 47 Minors
- 14 Pathways available in our Connections curriculum
- 5 Centers for Interdisciplinary Scholarship (our version of an honors college)
CAREER AT CONN

Our state-of-the-art Hale Center for Career Development complements the launch of our new career curriculum, designed to help students develop professionalism and hone their skills in researching, networking and storytelling. Our program includes a new Flexible Funding Program that makes multiple funding opportunities for internships and career preparation available during a student’s years at Conn. The entire student body engages with our Academic Resource Center, a national leader in academic skill-building and among the most well-endowed centers in the country.

- 1,737 Total enrollment
- 76% Ranked in the top 20% of their high school class
- 23% Domestic students of color
- 95% Employed or in graduate school 1 year after graduation

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The College’s mission is to educate students to put the liberal arts into action as citizens of a global society. Since 2014, Conn’s four-year integrative curriculum, Connections, teaches complex thinking, real-world problem-solving and, ultimately, ensures successful lives and careers for students beyond college.

- 92 percent of the Class of 2024 cited Connections as one of the main reasons they chose to enroll at Conn.
- 3 years in a row that Connecticut College has been named a Most Innovative School by U.S. News and World Report

ACADEMIC STATISTICS

- 9:1 Student-Faculty ratio
- 17 Students on average per class
- 42 Majors
- 47 Minors
- 14 Pathways available in our Connections curriculum
- 5 Centers for Interdisciplinary Scholarship (our version of an honors college)

CAREER AT CONN

Our state-of-the-art Hale Center for Career Development complements the launch of our new career curriculum, designed to help students develop professionalism and hone their skills in researching, networking and storytelling. Our program includes a new Flexible Funding Program that makes multiple funding opportunities for internships and career preparation available during a student’s years at Conn. The entire student body engages with our Academic Resource Center, a national leader in academic skill-building and among the most well-endowed centers in the country.

- $5,000 of funds available to eligible students over four years for career exploration and development, including internships
- 50 Career-Informed Learning Classes bringing together alumni, professors and students to solve real-world problems

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Founded in 1911, Connecticut College is a highly selective private liberal arts college of 1,800 students located on a 750-acre arboretum campus in New London, overlooking Long Island Sound and the Thames River. The College’s mission is to educate students to put the liberal arts into action as citizens of a global society. Through an innovative four-year program, Connections, students integrate every aspect of their experience—from classes to majors to internships to activities to jobs on campus and abroad—into a meaningful pathway that allows them to synthesize different perspectives, solve complex problems, and contribute to the public good. For more information, see www.conncoll.edu or find us on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and LinkedIn.