From the President

ANDREA E. CHAPDELAINÉ, PH.D.

In her November update, President Chapdelaine celebrates the success of Conn's first AI and the Liberal Arts Symposium, announces a search for new marketing and communications leadership, and shares plans for CREDO's visit to support a student-centered facilities plan. She highlights Conn's seven CASE awards for excellence in storytelling and design, recent athletic achievements, and expresses gratitude to the Conn community as Thanksgiving approaches.

Alumni & Family Travel Program

Last month, alumni and friends experienced the magic of Iceland's Northern Lights (Oct. 24–30) — exploring glaciers, geysers, and stunning night skies.

"The Connecticut College alumni & family trip to Iceland was fantastic! This is an exquisitely beautiful country — from hiking behind waterfalls to standing between tectonic plates. The only thing missing was more Camels!"

— Leslie Lamkin '85

Join us for more exciting journeys in 2026 — from Greece Island Hopper: Athens, Mykonos & Santorini (Apr. 24–May 4) to Costa Rica: A World of Nature (Oct. 17–28).
