

Verification of Financial Support (International Student)

Connecticut College is required by the federal government to verify that international students' financial resources are adequate to cover the anticipated cost of their period of enrollment. The cost would include tuition, room, board, fees, textbooks, travel and etc.) Verification is a necessary prerequisite to our issuing a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). It is not optional.

Please provide the information and signatures as outlined below. You may then upload this document and any supplemental materials to your Connecticut College application portal. The Verification of Financial Support (VFS) must be on file by the application deadline.
