

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Honoring Black History Month

This February, Connecticut College invites alumni and families to engage with Black history through meaningful conversation and shared experiences —from a virtual panel exploring pivotal Civil Rights moments and today's legal landscape to a special on-campus installation from Connecticut's first African American history museum.

Black History Month: Pivotal Moments

Feb. 10, 2026 | 7:30 p.m. | Virtual

Reflect on historic Civil Rights milestones and today's legal landscape with alumni leaders Ronnie Venture '86, Vice President of the Alumni Board; Judge Robin L. Wilson '82 of the Connecticut Appellate Court; and Connecticut College Assistant Professor of Government Daniel Moak.

From the President

ANDREA E. CHAPDELAINÉ, PH.D.

Across campus, we are celebrating a season of reflection, learning and community with Black History Month programs, a Lunar New Year event with the Chu-Griffis Asian Art Collection, interfaith observances including Ramadan and Lent and a special film screening featuring alum Susan Kerner '67. The College is also focused on several important updates and initiatives, including a new non-binding Early Action admission option, continued collaboration with CREDO to strengthen the student experience and the Board of Trustees' winter meeting centered on financial stability and future campus improvements. Alumni, faculty, staff and students continue to elevate Conn's presence nationally—read more highlights on our Conn in the News page. For a full schedule of events and observances, please see the College calendar.

Alumni Google Accounts

On March 1, 2026, alumni Google accounts will be retired as Conn updates its digital systems to remain safe, reliable and sustainable. Learn more and review next steps at the link below.
