

Connecticut College Fellowship List: The following fellowships require nomination or endorsement by Connecticut College

Beinecke Scholarships Substantial award ($32,000) for students of exceptional promise to attend grad school in the Arts, Humanities, Soc Sciences.

Eligibility: Must be juniors, have a 3.7 GPA and have a documented history of receiving need-based financial aid as an undergraduate.

www.beineckescholarship.org

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: early February

National Deadline: Late February

Fulbright Funds a year of study, self-designed research, or English teaching abroad. Provides transportation, tuition and stipend for one year. Choose from 140 different countries. Eligibility: US citizen, post BA, any major. Language proficiency for host country required for all research grants. Language requirement varies for teaching program—see website country listing. Online application required.

www.us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: Mid-September

National Deadline: Mid-October

British Marshall Scholarship (all majors) fund up to two years of study for a degree in the UK. Selectors look for distinction of intellect and character, evidenced by scholastic attainments and by their other activities and achievements. Preference is given to candidates who display a potential to make a significant contribution to their own society. Eligibility: US citizen, post BA, any major, GPA 3.7

www.marshallscholarship.org

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: Mid-September

National Deadline: October 1

The Rhodes Scholarships bring 32 Americans every year to pursue two years of study at the University of Oxford. Requires intellectual distinction, integrity, respect for their fellow human beings, leadership ability. Scholars are expected to play an influential part in the betterment of society, wherever their careers may take them. Eligibility: US citizen, BA, any major, GPA 3.8+.

www.rhodesscholar.org

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: Mid-September

National Deadline: early October

The George J. Mitchell Scholarships fund one year of study in the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland. Must have record of intellectual distinction, leadership, co-curricular activity, personal characteristics of honesty, integrity, fairness, and unselfish service to others that indicate a potential for future leadership and contribution to society. Eligibility: US citizen, post BA, any major, GPA 3.8+.

www.us-irelandalliance.org

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: Mid-September

National Deadline: early October

Carnegie International Peace Junior Fellows Program provides a substantive work experience for students with serious career interest and background in international affairs. A very strong overall academic record is required. International students eligible to work for a year after graduation may apply. Ten students will be hired to work at the Endowment on a full time basis for one year. Eligibility: BA, preferred majors IR, Government, Economics, History, Russian Studies.

www.carnegieendowment.org/about/index.cfm?fa=jrFellows

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: January 3

National Deadline: mid-January

Harry S. Truman Scholarship awards scholarships to college students who wish to attend graduate school in preparation for careers in government, the non-profit sector or public service. $27,000 for two or three years of graduate study, priority admission, leadership training, and internship opportunities in the federal government. Scholars may attend graduate or professional schools in the US or abroad. Eligibility: Juniors only, US Citizens (or US National from Pacific Island), GPA 3.7+, extensive record leadership, service, commitment to public service career.

www.truman.gov

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Dean Deborah Dreher

Campus Deadline: Early October of junior year

National Deadline: Early February of the junior year

The Echoing Green Fellowship provides seed money to social entrepreneurs starting innovative public service organizations and projects to catalyze positive social change. Provides one-year, $20,000 stipend for individuals applying through their undergraduate program.

Eligibility: innovative, resourceful graduating seniors or graduates. Demonstrated social entrepreneurship, deep commitment to social change.

www.echoinggreen.org

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Tracee Reiser

Campus Deadline: Early February

National Deadline: Early November

The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship is intended to alleviate the shortage of scientists, mathematicians, and engineers. Awarded to students who will be college juniors and those who will be seniors, who have outstanding potential and intend to pursue careers in the above-stated disciplines. Award covers tuition, fees, books, and room and board, up to a maximum of $7,500 annually. Junior-level scholarship recipients are eligible for a maximum of two years of support, and senior-level scholarship recipients are eligible for a maximum of one year.

Eligibility: sophomores, juniors, US citizen, high GPA, demonstrated potential for career in Math, Natural Sciences, and Medical Research.

<http://www.act.org/goldwater>

CC nomination required

Campus Adviser: Professor Marc Zimmer

Campus Deadline: Early January

National Deadline: Late January

The Mortimer Hays-Brandeis Traveling Fellowship for year of study abroad in the visual and fine arts, including art history, conservation, studio art, and photography.. Eligibility: BA no more than 3 years prior to fellowship, strong project related to professional goals, demonstrated ability to carry it out, www.brandeis.edu/mhb CC nomination required Campus Adviser: Professor Andrea Wollensak
National Deadline: End January

The Samuel Huntington Public Service Award provides an annual stipend for a graduating senior to pursue public service for one year anywhere in the world. The project can be undertaken by the student acting independently or through established charitable, educational, government, public service organizations. Eligibility: Seniors, commitment to public service, well-developed project, academic achievement. <http://www.nationalgridus.com/huntington.asp> CC nomination required Campus Adviser: Tracee Reiser
Deadline: Mid-February

Rotary Peace Fellowships: Masters degree fellowships at 5 universities in fields related to peace and conflict resolution and prevention (Universities: Duke, Univ NC Chapel Hill, International Christian University in Japan, University of Bradford UK, University of Queensland Australia, Uppsala University Sweden <https://www.rotary.org/en/peace-fellowships> Nomination required Campus Contact: Tracee Reiser

Morris K. Udall Scholarships are awarded to undergraduate students who intend to pursue careers related to the environment or to Native American and Alaska Native undergraduate students who intend to pursue careers in health care and tribal public policy. Covers expenses for tuition, fees, books, and room and board, up to a maximum of $5,000. Scholarship recipients are eligible for one year of scholarship support. Eligibility: Sophomores & Juniors, majors in Environmental Science, Natural Sciences, and the Social Sciences, GPA 3.0+, U.S. Citizenship, U.S. Nationals, or resident aliens. Career objectives related to the environment, potential to make a significant contribution in chosen field. www.udall.gov CC nomination required Campus Contact: Professor Marc Zimmer
Deadline: Mid-February National Deadline: early March

The Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans provides opportunities for New Americans. Provides grants for up to two years of graduate study in the US. Fellows receive annual grant of $20,000 and tuition grant of one-half the tuition cost of the US graduate program. Eligibility: New Americans—resident aliens, naturalized U.S. Citizens, or child of two parents who are both naturalized citizens. A Green Card holder must have had more than one year of IRS filings and regard the U.S. as their principal residence and focus of national identity. BA, GRE taken by October. Initiative demonstrated in any area of life. Capacity for accomplishment, demonstrated through activity that has required drive and sustained effort, commitment to the values of U.S. Constitution and The Bill of Rights www.pdsoros.org CC nomination required Campus Contact: Dean Deborah Dreher
Campus Deadline: Early October Foundation Deadline: late October

The National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship provides stipend and cost-of-education allowance for three years of graduate study in U.S. or abroad, leading to a research-based MS or PhD in: math; physical, biological, behavioral or social sciences, includes history of science, philosophy of science; computer science, engineering. Eligibility: U. S. Citizen, GRE (general and subject tests), may not have completed more than 20 semesters hours graduate work, potential to contribute significantly to research, teaching, industrial applications in Science, Math or Engineering, high academic achievement, relevant undergraduate research, career plan that shows motivation, initiative, creativity, commitment. <http://www.nsfgrfp.org/> CC nomination required Campus Contact: Professor Marc Zimmer
Campus Deadline: Early October

Scholarship Databases

www.profellow.com
International Education Financial Aid: <http://www.iefaf.org/>
International Scholarship Search <http://www.internationalscholarships.com/index.php>