

Center for the Comparative Study of Race and Ethnicity

ConnWorks Series 2013-2014

Featuring research on race and ethnicity carried out by
CC Faculty, staff, and students.

Tuesday, Dec. 3, 2013

“Undocumented Native Americans and Maroons in French Guiana?
Border Control and the Making of Stateless People on the Maroni River”

-Catherine Benoit (Prof. Anthropology)

4:15 PM – 5:45 PM at 740 Williams Street

Tuesday, Jan. 28, 2014

“A Counter-Narrative and a Common Core? Negotiating Standards Policy and Critical Pedagogy in a Bilingual School Along the Border”

-Lauren Anderson (Prof. Education)

4:15 PM – 5:45 PM at 740 Williams Street

Tuesday, Feb. 11, 2014

“‘It’s So Unfair!’ Youth Respond to Racial Stereotypes, the Zimmerman Verdict, and Obama’s Presidency Within Unequal America”

-Principal Investigator: Ana Campos-Holland (Prof. Sociology)

-Student Researchers: Brooke Dinsmore ‘14, Molly Bienstock ‘14,
Elena Klonoski ‘16, and Luis Ramos ‘16

4:15 PM – 5:45 PM at BILL 106

Friday, Feb. 28, 2014

“Bodies in a Globalizing World”

Global Beauty, Local Bodies

Afshan Jafar & Erynn Masi de Casanova, editors

Bodies Without Borders

Afshan Jafar & Erynn Masi de Casanova, editors

-Afshan Jafar (Prof. Sociology), Erynn Masi de Casanova, & four others

4:15 PM – 6:15 PM at NL 101

Tuesday, March 25, 2014

“‘Asiatic Cholera’ in the Americas: Slavery, Colonialism and the Making of Epidemiology”

-James Downs (Prof. History)

4:15 PM – 5:45 PM at 740 Williams Street

Reception to follow. For more information, contact Prof. Leo Garofalo at lgar@conncoll.edu.